To live in Christ, in part, means we will have opponents in the gospel and we will suffer for the gospel. The gospel promises the good life but that doesn't make it an easy life.

This is Paul at his most theological in the letter and it's also tied with his most practical exhortation. Because of what Jesus accomplished, we get to be the most loving, joy-filled, quick-to-forgive, quick-to-believe-the-best human beings on the planet.

Scripture:

Philippians 2:1-11

2 Corinthians 5:16-21

Week 6 (June 13 - June 19)

Anchor Passage: Phil 2:12-18

How do we make sense of when Paul says “work out your salvation with fear and trembling”? Aren’t the Phillippians saved already? Here we see though, salvation is not just a one-and-done act (justification), it is also an ongoing call to follow Jesus (sanctification).

Philippians 2:12-18

Psalms 130

Romans 6:1-11

Romans 6:12-14

2 Thessalonians 2:13-17

Week 7 (June 20 - June 26)

Anchor Passage: Phil 2:19-30, and 4:2-3

Paul sends his best ahead of him to help encourage the Philippian church. Joy motivated Paul to send out. And just as Christians don't exist purely for themselves but for a people, so our church doesn't exist for itself but for the world.

1 Corinthians 3:5-9

1 John 1:1-4

Revelation 7:9-12

Week 8 June 27 - July 3)

Anchor Passage: Phil 3:1-11

In our city/culture, we are bombarded with all sorts of self-justification models. Paul was once “the best of the best” and yet he calls it all garbage compared to knowing Jesus. When we are justified by faith, all the things that are true of Christ are now true of you.

Scripture:

2 Corinthians 5:16-21

Galatians 2:15-21

Matthew 3:11-17

Ephesians 2:1-10

Week 9 (July 4 - July 10)

Anchor Passage: Phil 3:12-4:1

Because of who we are in Jesus, we are not a band of silo'd Christians looking to get our spiritual goods on Sundays. We are a people. We are rehearsing our eternities together. As author Robert Mulholland says, "spiritual formation is conforming to the image of Jesus for the sake of others."

Galatians 6:1-6

1 Thessalonians 5:12-15

Week 10 (July 11 - July 17)

Week 11 (July 18 - July 24)

Anchor Passage: Phil 4:8-9

As Paul begins to wrap up this joy-filled letter he encourages his people on how to handle their thought life. “Think about these things,” he says. So much of our joy is connected to what we think.
